Once I learned them, my piano teacher had me to play all of the exercises from the first exercise to the last non stop, of course, at a fast tempo. These are great exercises for developing good technique, regardless of the style you want to play -- pop, jazz, blues or classical. #27. GP Trooper (Tuesday, 13

The exercises in this book use the major scale, pentatonic scale, blues scale, and chromatic scale. These are the four most common scales in pop and rock music. The scales are used often for composing melodies and for improvisation. There are a total of 430 finger exercises in this book. 86 individual exercises are presented in five different keys.
