With George Saunders receiving so much positive press these days, I decided to try CivilWarLand in Bad Decline. Now having read the short story collection, I can understand the acclaim. The stories are imaginative, distinctive, unusual, full of bizarre characters inhabiting bizarre worlds.

CivilWarLand in Bad Decline by George Saunders

George Saunders is one of the best short story writers alive today, but these are not your ordinary short stories. I've heard them described as weird, funny, dark, complex and strange, but extremely entertaining. Impossible not to get caught up in the stories. I especially enjoyed the title story "Civilwarland in Bad Decline".
