Being depressed is like wearing a pair of apocalyptic glasses. Everything seems bleak, futile, and pointless. The promises of God, which normally bring life and hope and sunshine, seem hollow. God himself feels distant and uncaring, like a distracted, removed father who cares more about other things or other people.

3 Powerful Pieces of Encouragement For The Depressed Christian

I'm not sure of the proper way to feel sad emotions. Obviously there are social norms and customs dependent on your culture on how to behave during sad circumstances. You simply feel emotions how you feel them, and ultimately words are only labels on what you're feeling and don't capture the full depth of the emotion itself.
